

HEALING OF MAGIC Disclosure Policy

HEALING OF MAGIC makes available, for purchase, additional resources in the form of an illustrated manual and DVD to those who are interested in beginning a magic therapy program or to further develop an existing program.

It is our policy that the Instructor of any course being offered by HEALING OF MAGIC will inform all individuals who participate that our organization has a commercial interest by making these materials available.

This disclosure is made available to potential participants in the Continuing Education section on the organization's website. In addition, an announcement will be made to all participants, prior to the commencement of any course, by the Instructor acknowledging this commercial interest.
